

CCW class and United Circles of First Baptist church met in fellowship hall Thursday for a combined business meeting and Christmas party. Mrs Minnie George, Mrs Muriel Hague, Genevive Foreman and Mrs Mabel Jones served on the committee. A carry in dinner was served at noon. Tables were attractively arranged with holly centerpieces and place favors. The Rev. Roy Pitts gave the invocation. Mrs Hague presided over the business meeting. Mrs Marion Tingley gave the devotions, reading the Christmas story for the Gospel of Luke. Twenty-seven members answered roll call; shut-ins and ill members were remembered with cards signed by those present. Elected officers were Mrs Hague, president; Mrs Elsie Boltz, vice president; Mrs Jones, secretary; and Mrs Eugenia Sigi, treasurer. The program was miscellaneous readings and poems were given by Mrs George, Mrs Boltz, Mrs Tingley, Mrs Signi, and Mrs Greta Burns. Gifts were exchanged and carols were sung, accompanied by Mrs Pitts. The love gift of the United Circles was presented and dedicated. Brief business was conducted, as there will be no meeting of the circles on the regular date which comes close to Christmas. Mrs Clarabell Edwards, teacher of the CCW class, presented each with a gift. A money gift was presented to her and to the pastor and wife. 1973
