

Wedding Fashions Highlight M-D Tea

IONIA—Wedding dresses, old and new, bridesmaids and flower girl's dresses and wedding pictures will be featured at the Mother-Daughter tea sponsored by American Baptist Women of First Baptist church.

The 2 pm tea May 7 will feature one dress from each decade, 1880 to 1970 from Mrs Pearl Lee and church members.

1977 spring bridal fashions will be furnished by Bride's World of Grand Rapids.

After the display, a wedding reception will be held in the church for members and their guests.

Church women are to bring a copy of their wedding picture to share with the group.

Katherine Bonn will have devotions, Mrs Jean Pitts will salute grandmothers and Marjorie and Barbara Beckett of Portland will sing a duet for the group.

OLD MEETS NEW in the bridal fashion show at First Baptist church's mother-daughter tea May 7. Linda Green (left) and Vi Wolcott discuss the changes in bridal fashions. Linda is wearing a brown brocade taffeta wedding dress typical of the 1880's while Vi models a polyester knit dress trimmed in silk venise lace from a Grand Rapids store. (Photo by Barb Braendle)

1977