

Community Thanksgiving planned

IONIA — Community Thanksgiving services will be held in Ionia at 7 p.m. Wednesday at Ionia First Baptist Church.

The community services are sponsored by the Ionia Area Christian Ministries Association.

Special music will be provided by the host church.

The Rev. Timothy Gillette, pastor of the church, will deliver the sermon, titled "Living In Thanksgiving."

Some of the other Ionia clergyman assisting with the services include the Revs. Keith Bovee of First United Methodist Church, Fred Brucker of SS. Peter and Paul Church, and Kenneth Norcross of the Assembly of God.

The public is invited.

Nov 23, 1985

Community Thanksgiving services Nov. 28, 1985

Sentinel photo by Jeff Ellsworth

Ionia community Thanksgiving services drew worshippers from across the community Wednesday evening to First Baptist Church of Ionia. From left, the Rev. Timothy A. Gillette, pastor of the host church, and David Holliday, church song leader. In the back are members of the First Baptist Church choir.